About Us

1

The Ketchum Arts Festival began in 1999, when a group of Blaine County artists, inspired by Janet Dunbar, held the Festival in the gallery at The Courtyard, across from Giacobbi Square in Ketchum. Eventually more artists joined us and the Festival moved to East Avenue, which was closed for this purpose between 4th Street and Sun Valley Road. In 2005, we moved to Festival Meadow in Sun Valley. There we grew even further. With room to spare, we invited Guest Artists from around Idaho to participate if they made something unlike what we, as Blaine County artists could offer.

We are a Blaine County festival with additional Idaho artists. If you see artists with out of state addresses, either they are part time residents who pay property taxes in Blaine County or they are former Blaine County artists who took part in the Festival when they lived here but have moved out of state since then.
